

MIKE CHALUPA | *EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, CITY NEIGHBORS FOUNDATION

Before Mike was selected as the full-time Director of City Neighbors Foundation in 2018, he was the Academic Director of all three City Neighbors schools. That role included educational leadership, staff evaluation, hiring, curriculum development, facilitating collaboration, solidifying administrative and policy structures, and serving as the primary liaison with the District. He also served as the leader of our founding school, City Neighbors Charter School, for eight years, where he created an environment rooted in the school's vision and mission. Prior to joining City Neighbors, Mike served as the Executive Director of The GreenMount School from 2000 – 2005 and Dean of Students at St. John's Episcopal school from 1996 – 2000, where he also served as a classroom instructor and program coordinator. Mike earned his MA in Education from the Harvard Graduate School of Education and his BA in English and History from Georgetown University, graduating magna cum laude. Mike is also a father of three.
