

GWENDOLYN UNOKO | DIRECTOR OF COMMUNITY PROGRAMS, CITY NEIGHBORS FOUNDATION

Gwendolyn leads the City Neighbors High School Internship Program, helps lead public education impact and advocacy efforts, and serves as the coordinator of the City Neighbors annual Progressive Education Summit. Prior to her joining the City Neighbors Foundation team, she served as a Community Schools Coordinator with Child First Authority at Calvin Rodwell Elementary/Middle School. She previously served as Project Manager at Johns Hopkins University in International Health and Infectious Disease Program, and is a former Board President of City Neighbors Charter School. In addition to her Bachelor's Degree from Troy State University and her Masters Degree from Johns Hopkins University, Gwendolyn holds certificates in Advanced Youth Development, Youth Program Quality Assessment, Facilitative Leadership for Social Change, and Standards for Quality for Family Strengthening and Support.