

CHEYANNE ZAHRT,
PRINCIPAL, CITY NEIGHBORS HIGH SCHOOL

Cheyanne brings a wealth of experience in working with teachers, students, and parents. During her five years as Assistant Principal of City Neighbors High School, she demonstrated a strong stand for children, teachers, families, as well as our mission and vision. Before joining City Neighbors, Cheyanne was a teacher in Baltimore City Schools through Teach for America, and then a teacher and the Director of Transition and Student Development at Academy for College and Career Exploration High School. She possesses a Bachelor of Arts in Environmental Studies and Religion from Pacific Lutheran University, a Master of Arts in Teaching from Johns Hopkins University, and a Master of Arts in Educational Leadership and Development from George Washington University.